

For immediate release

16 August 2010

Key Technologies PLC
Auction Frequency

Following a review of auction frequencies on Sharemark, Key Technologies plc, which is currently traded on a weekly basis, will as of the end of September 2010 be traded monthly going forwards.

Auctions will continue to take place on a Friday and will be scheduled for the final Friday of each month. The auction time remains unchanged at 12pm, with a cut-off for new orders of 11am.

The final weekly auction will take place on 24 September, with the next auction then to be held on 29 October

ENDS