

For immediate release

21 December 2009

East London Bond – Series II
Important Information for Investors

Investors in the East London Bond – Series II, should be aware that no financial information in relation to the issuer, Citylife Limited, shall be made available via the Sharemark website.

An annual review of the Bond and the progress of the charities which it supports shall be published from the first anniversary following the Bond issue. These future reports shall be made available in the 'Announcements' section of the East London Bond – Series II area of the Sharemark website.

Should an investor wish to discuss the availability of financial reporting, then requests should be placed directly with Citylife.

ENDS

For further information please contact Citylife Limited